

Shorter wait times. Extended hours. Convenient locations.

If you are not sure where to go to get the care you need, contact your doctor.

He or she will be able to help you decide where to go. Remember to contact your doctor after getting urgent or emergency services for any follow-up care you may need.

Keep the number of your doctor and your nearest Urgent Care Center in an easy-access place, like your cell phone.

FindAnUrgentCareCenter.com

B-2941 / 3795-09M A nonprofit independent licensee of the BlueCross BlueShield Association

When to go to an Urgent Care Center.